

GAVEL CLUB

The Gavel Club is an affiliate of the Toastmasters Society. We are a club that defines the epitome of excellency. Generally, we are sisters who specialise in the beauty of change. In short, we aim at shooting for the stars and beyond. If we, as ladies, receive the message, then go ahead and develop yourselves. As a club, we also help and care for the needy, persevere in our studies and help everyone in general. In conclusion, I end with our favourite quote:

The heights by great men reached and kept,
were not attained by sudden flight,
but they, while others slept, were toiling upward in the night.
